From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 20.

Basil, July 8.

TH E General Diet of the Laudable Cantons was opened some Days ago, with the usual Solemnities at Baden. 'Tis said the Abbot de St. Gall, by Advice of the Emperor, will send Deputies to it; and 'tis hoped that Means may be found out to terminate his Differences with the two Cantons of Zolich and Bern.

From the Amst. Courant, dated July 20.

Schaffhausen, July 10. On Tuesday Evening the French Ambassadour came to Baden, and on Wednesday Morning he was introduced with the usual Ceremonies into the Assembly of all the Cantons; where his Excellency made a Speech, and in it after a handsome Compliment, recommended to them, the restoring of a good Harmony among themselves, assuring them, that as that was the principal Object of his Embassy, it will be a great Pleasure to him, if by his Zeal and Industry he shall be able to contribute to it. On Thursday that Ambassadour was waited upon at his Lodgings, and complimented by a Deputation from the Body of the Swiss Confederacy.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated July 20.

Francfort, July 14. We hear from Baden, that the Marquis d'Avarey Ambassadour of France, has made Propositions to the Deputies of the Helvetic Body, but that they were not yet made publick. They write from Geneva the 9th Instant, that the Deputies of that City who went to Chambery to compliment the King of Sicily are return'd, very well satisfied with the gracious Reception he made them.

From the Hague Courant, dated July 21.

Hamburg, July 18. We have this Day receiv'd Advice from Mecklenburg, that last Saturday 5000 Infantry of the Russian Troops, went on board their Gallies at Rostock, and sail'd away for Rugen; and that on the 20th the rest of their Troops will break up from Gadebusch, and march by Land to Poland; to which purpose General Weyde went from Gultrow to Schwerin to take Leave of the Duke; so that it is hoped that the said Dutchy will be before the End of the Month, entirely evacuated of that Nation, except two Regiments which make near 3000 Men, and are to serve as a Guard to the Dutchess. We hear from Copenhagen, that the Embargo on Shipping is taken off, they having taken up Transports enough for the Service to Norway; from whence 'tis confirm'd, that General Morner has made a strong Detachment towards the Frontiers of that Kingdom, and that the King of Sweden is expected at Gottemburg, and seems inclinable to enter into a Peace with his Enemies.

From the Amst. Courant, dated July 20.

Hamburg, July 16. The Swedes shew Letters here from Sweden, dated June 24, which say, that the King of Sweden has declared, That he will send his Ministers to Brunswick to treat of Peace; provided that his Ministers who were arrested in England and Holland be releas'd. And in Regard we have Advice this will shortly be effected, the Count de la Marck has great Hopes of working at a Peace in a short Time.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated July 20.

Dusseldorp, July 16. 'Tis written from Spa, that the Czar had resolv'd to depart from thence a little time, to go to Aix la Chapelle, from whence 'tis believ'd he will come to this City. Thereupon the Carbiniers of Pleis and the Battalion of Norpath are order'd to march and Post themselves on the Road to attend his Czarish Majesty during the time he tarries in the Dominions of his Electoral Highness. And the Electoral Coaches are already gone to Aix la Chapelle to wait for the Czar; and all other necessary Orders are given for the Reception of that Monarch.

London, July 17.

Yesterday arriv'd the Mails from Flanders, and a Mail from France.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated July 23.

From the Imperial Camp before Belgrade, July 3. On the 29th past at Break of Day, the Enemy made two Sallies soon after one another upon our advanced Posts on the Left Wing. But our Men receiv'd them so well, that they were forc'd to retire with Loss. The Turks sent down the Danube in the Night-time, a Boat Mill against our Bridge, which did it some Damage, but was soon repair'd. Deserters from the Town report, that the Besieged are making very high Works, and strong Retrenchments in the Lower Town, on the Side of the Water, for the better securing their Horse: But add, that the Terror and Confusion in the City is very great; and that the Enemy seeing that they were closely shut up, by the Body of Troops under General Hauben also, have abandon'd Semlin, and given Leave to the Rascians who inhabit there to go where they please. On the 30th we receiv'd Advice, that the Artillery which came from Segedin to Titul, was safely arriv'd; as also, that the first Transport sent from Buda, Esseck, and Peterwaradin, was arriv'd at Banova. On the 1st of this Month the five Hungarian Coruzzes lately taken, were hang'd at Rebels. And one of our Parties of Hussars brought in a Tartar, who says, he was one of a Party of 50, who were sent from Semendria to gain Intelligence of the Posture and Condition of our Camp, and to carry off Prisoners. But he could give no Account of the Enemy's main Army. The same Day the Besieged rais'd a new Battery towards the Water-side, from which they Yesterday cannonaded our Redoubt, but without doing it any considerable Damage. In the Night the Governour of Belgrade sent down another Boat Mill charg'd with Bombs and Grenadoes, and other Fire-works against our Bridge, with Intention to have destroy'd it; but the Fire-works went off too soon, and so it was spent before it came near. This Day the heavy Artillery is arriv'd in the Camp, and will soon be planted, and 'tis expected that To-morrow, or the next Day at farthest, the Trenches will be opened. The Enemy make frequent Sallies with 1000 or 2000 Men, and in one of them kill'd 25 of our Men, but we kill'd 70 of theirs. The Turks having disturb'd our Foragers, from an Island that lies near our Bridge over the Danube, where they have a Battery of some Cannon, we shall To-morrow or next Day attack that Island. There can Nothing certain be yet heard of the Enemy's Army, so that there cannot be a Battle so soon as some imagined.

London, July 17.

The Royal Beautifying Fluid, which will transfer any Thing ever made Publick, and is really the most secret in Nature to beautify the Face, Neck and Hands, as most the first Quality have experienced, for it gives an inexpensive Air to the Features of the Face by the Spots; and a surprising smoothness to the Neck and Hands, upon which last Account several Gentlemen as well as Ladies make use of it, and admire its superior Excellency. It certainly takes away all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimples, Bumps, Roughness, Freckles, Morpew, Worms in the Face, Sunburn at any other discolouring, and removes all Wrinkles so perfectly as scarcely to be conceiv'd, but even to rectify the Defects of Old Age, making the Skin become in truth and complexion fine, clear, plump, soft and charming fair, so to cause Admiration in all Persons, and yet is nothing of Paint, but far exceeds it, for it brings the Skin whether of the Face, Neck or Hands, and though brown, red or rough, to its natural Beauty and Perfection, viz. a lasting youthful Plumpness, Smoothness and Delicacy, which Paint only falsely imitates. As to this Royal Beautifier prepared from the least Particle of Mercury or any thing Mercurial, it is perfectly innocuous and harmless, and may be safely given to young and old Children. It has been a pleasant Secret, will not be the least Laid, and is far from being troublesome to use, for the whole is laid thick upon the Face. It is to be had only at Mrs. Cabors's, Toy-shop, in the Strand, and Crown under St. Dunstons Church in Fleetstreet, in 4 s. d. a Bottle, with directions.
